Imminent Sonic Destruction Announces North American Tour Dates

posted at 1:07 PM by xFiruath. (1 Comment)

American progressive metallers Imminent Sonic Destruction are pleased to announce that they will be embarking on a North American tour this May supporting Sweden's Pain of Salvation.

ISD will play a show in Atlanta, GA on April 28th before hitting the road with Pain of Salvation May 1st in West Springfield, VA. The dates are currently scheduled to run through May 11th in Minneapolis, MN. Additional dates are expected to be announced shortly.

Frontman Tony Piccoli commented on the upcoming tour: "This is an incredibly exciting opportunity for us, and we're looking forward to making a lot of new friends and fans!"

ISD released debut "Recurring Themes" (reviewed here) in 2012. Check out the previously posted music video for "Monster" at this location. Catch the band live:
